From-

Received Sep-22-2006 08:05

The following is transmitted by both FAX and US mail:

an 25, 2004

AG, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands
 Mailer Box 10007, Capitol Hill
 Saipan, MP 96950

Gentlemen:

Reference is made to CNMI Superior Court Case No 96-1320 (in which the case file shows post office receipts allegedly from me showing that I received service on the complaint and its amendments by certified mail), my written and telephone communications on this matter to your office from Sep 12, 2004 on to this date, my attached memo for record (enclosures C and D), and my request from me to file a criminal complaint against the person or persons whom had prepared the receipts, all of which I deem to be forgeries and involving fraud to prompt a $139,000 default judgment against me in the Superior Court case.

It is my understanding that your office has undertaken an investigation commenced on or about Sep 12, 2004 on my request to file criminal charges against the party or parties producing the alleged mail receipts. In my conversation with Mr Buckingham of your office, I noted the possibility that the alleged mail receipts involved could become lost or damaged in the course of your investigation. I strongly recommended that your office make xerox copies of the original receipts and have a notary certify them as certified true copies of an original. These copies can be used in your investigation while the actual receipts can be safeguarded and secured to prevent loss or damage. I hope that this security process was implemented.

I also suggested to Mr Buckingham that Postal inspectors are available in the US to precisely investigate matters such as my complaint. This process could be done fairly quickly and involve little expense to the CNMI (although each passing day since Sep 12, 2004 goes to make it more possible that the Postal records or people will be unable to determine what happened). Finally, I suggested that this whole thing can be referred to the FBI as it involves interstate fraud and possible conspiracy to defraud both me and the CNMI (I note that the CNMI has already paid out over $100,000 in this matter plus the judgment of $139,000 against me).

In the Supreme court decision on this case, it appears that plaintiff argued that under the CNMI indemnification act, the CNMI should pay the $139,000. The court said that since I allegedly had not asked for any indemnification, none is due (apparently, the court said that if I had asked for indemnification, the plaintiff would have been paid the $139,000 judgment). Of course, it is totally wrong (and I would suggest that it is absurd and virtually impossible to believe) that "I had not asked for indemnification." The truth is that my attorney, the AG, had not informed me on what had happened or was happening on this case, despite my many contacts and persistence with the AG on this matter.

In any case, in accordance with the Supreme Court decision, I sent your office the attached letter (enclosure A) on Sep 12, 2004 by both fax and mail requesting indemnification. Mr Buckingham confirmed by telephone conversation that he had seen my fax. As I desired something in writing on this matter, I wrote the attached letter (enclosure B) on Nov 26, 2004 asking for a formal confirmation. I never received a reply.

Again, I ask for a formal confirmation on this request from me for indemnification of $139,130 and what your response is to my request. I will only note here that if this request is not honored promptly, I am continuing to incur expenses for phone calls, postage, etc, plus much pain and suffering. I hope that your office will address these needs promptly. Thanking you, I am,

Your very truly,

Robert D. Bradshaw
